

THE MORNING SENSATION

Ms. Amy is an efficient secretary. Everything will be done by her very quickly, and the result is excellent. Therefore, she is admired by many people in the office, especially by her boss. She really likes something unique about her. She enjoys going to work by bus! She was given a car by the company two months ago, but until now it has never been used by her. She always says that whenever she is greeted by the same persons she meets on the bus; it is the sensation of the morning life for her
